

General English PLUS Combination

Courses start any Monday

This course is for students at elementary level and above who are looking for an English Language Course and much more.

The English PLUS Combination course is for students.

It is an opportunity to spend time studying English in a mixed nationality class (please look at our General English course document) and then to improve your listening and speaking skills whilst having a lesson in your chosen favourite activity during the afternoon/after school.

We can arrange one-to-one lessons in

- a chosen sport (tennis, golf, horse riding and or other).
- painting and/or art history
- music,
- drama

Please contact us with the following information:

- Course dates
- Chosen activity/sport
- Frequency of additional activity (once a week, twice a week etc.)
- Duration of additional activity (1 hour per session, 2 hours per session etc.)

General English Tuition Fees	see our General English document
Cost of your after-school activity	on a quotation basis. Tell us what you would like to do as an after-school activity and we'll tell you how much it will cost. Please email the School : english@eckersley.co.uk

Registration Fee: 65 GBP

For individuals and groups.

The following are just some of the options available:

General English PLUS Sport

For individuals and groups.

- one-to-one lessons in Tennis, Golf, or Horse-riding and/or other chosen sport
- improve your sporting skills and learn the specialist language of the sport.
- a great opportunity to improve your listening and speaking skills
- Tuition will be with a fully qualified instructor for the number of hours you choose.
- If more than one student is interested, then we can arrange group tuition.

Insurance: students must be adequately insured for any sporting activity.

General English PLUS Art programme (Art History and/or Painting)

Ideal for individuals, this General English PLUS Art programme is suited for students who want to improve their visual skills, practically or critically. You will be working with a practising painter. This work can include practical work in a variety of media (for e.g. drawing, painting, printing, digital photography) to suit individual needs and/or the use of artist's work directly and indirectly through exhibitions and books.

The Ashmolean Museum, Christchurch Picture Gallery, Modern Art Oxford and Pitt Rivers Museum are nearby and can be used to develop your understanding and critical visual thinking.

General English PLUS Drama

Ideal for groups all year round – Individuals in the summer period, the General English PLUS Drama course is ideally suited to students with an interest in literature and drama, and to those who wish to experience performing on a stage in front of an audience.

Weekly after-school drama sessions will be led by experienced drama teachers, and theatre visits can be arranged in Oxford, Stratford or London.

Additional sessions can be arranged for group bookings.

Sessions typically include:

reading short plays

improvising and acting short scenes

videoing

character-work

accent, pronunciation and intonation

watching and discussing scenes from film and television

reading and watching short scenes from Shakespeare and modern dramatists acting (in front of an audience) in short scenes in the school student room presentation area

For groups: on the last week of the Drama course, the group can perform in front of an audience of guests, students, staff and host-families. Performances both in class and in the presentation area will be videoed and at the end of a course a CD/DVD will be produced.

General English PLUS Music

Ideal for individuals, General English PLUS Music is for students who wish to combine their English learning with studying a musical instrument. We are in contact with a range of professional instrumental teachers in Oxford and can arrange lessons for you on any instrument, whether you are a beginner or an advanced musician.
