

General English PLUS Exam Preparation

Eckersley Oxford can register student for the following internationally recognised examinations:

General English:	University of Cambridge Examinations (FCE, CAE, CPE)	Prepare for exams in March, June and December. Eckersley Oxford is a Trinity College London recognised centre, so exams can be organised at the School. Please contact us for more information on dates and costs english@eckersley.co.uk
University Entrance:	IELTS	Classes normally start at least 4 weeks before your examination date.
Business English:	BEC Examinations (Preliminary, Vantage, Higher Levels)	Prepare for exams in March, June and November.

Special preparation classes are not normally provided for TOEFL or TOEIC. However, the School can register candidates, as well as offering practice and advice.

Preparation Classes

All examination candidates join General English classes on five mornings each week. Special examination preparation classes take place in the afternoons.

In the morning classes, you study and practice all aspects of English – reading, writing, listening, speaking, grammar, vocabulary, etc. – in order to improve your general level of English, and also help you pass the exam.

In the Exam Preparation classes, on 4 afternoons a week, you use your English to practise the specific types of questions found in the exams.

Tuition Fees

Length of your course	1-12 week	13 - 25 weeks	26 – 50+ weeks
21 hours	230 GBP	220 GBP	200 GBP

Registration Fee: 65 GBP

Course Dates and Enrolment

Please see our calendar on www.eckersley.co.uk for dates of Registration, Preparation courses and Exam dates. It is usually possible to register for an exam at the beginning of a course. However, for students on short courses (for example four weeks) it may be necessary to register for an exam before the course starts. The Schools will do this for you when you send the examination fee, though we may need to ask you more questions about your level before registering you.
